Bandonegro is an international acclaimed Polish tango ensemble. The group showcases Argentine tango traditions, tango nuevo, and their own compositions infused with jazz elements. They have performed in over 30 countries across 4 continents, earning acclaim in the United States, Japan, Canada, Indonesia, Argentina, Taiwan, France or Germany. Their output includes 5 albums, released by prestigious music labels. A special version of "Gallo Ciego" by Bandonegro was showcased during the finals of the Buenos Aires Tango World Cup, the world's largest tango event.

Daniel "Pipi" Piazzolla is an acclaimed Argentine drummer, composer, and educator a graduate of the Musicians Institute in Los Angeles. Leader of Escalandrum and Pipi Piazzolla Trio, he has collaborated with world-renowned artists like Paquito D'Rivera, Ute Lemper, and Miguel Zenón. With Escalandrum he released 15 albums, earned 11 Gardel Awards, including the prestigious Gardel de Oro and was nominated for a Latin Grammy. His trio has released four albums, winning three Gardel awards. Sponsored by Yamaha and Zildjian, Piazzolla continues to shape contemporary jazz in Argentina and beyond.

Lucio Balduini is an Argentine guitarist and composer whose work is deeply rooted in the jazz tradition. His music also draws from Argentine folk, tango, and rock, reflecting a rich tapestry of cultural influences. Guided by a vision of constant innovation, Balduini stands out as one of the most original and creative voices of his generation. He was awarded the 2018 Gardel Award for Best Jazz Album and has also received three Gardel Awards with acclaimed Pipi Piazzolla Trío in the same category.
