FLORESCENCE

MANTRA Be kind / Forgiving / Peace of mind / Act respectfully of others / Speak with good intent / Be open to love in various forms / Invite endorsement into your life / Remain in balance with your emotions / Do the best you can / Invoke laughter / Be open to love / Be kind / Embrace it all / Relate in peace LOUDER LOVE There's this voice in my head / It's poisoning with it's cruelty / Constantly telling me: You're not worthy, not wanted / You're too much, too weird, too loud / You're a failure, a fraud, you're a cheater, ugly competitor / And you're never good enough / You will never be enough / "Watch your mouth, you know I can hear you!", said the pigeon on the fence and glanced at me with a firm look, that was summed up in a soothing smile / "Let go of it, those words will only bring you down" / It's time to wake up, from the longest night of your life / Time to choose, pain that uses you, or rather pain that you use / You choose / And the pigeon said: "Speak good about yourself / Be kind to yourself / Remember to remind yourself of this always" / I'm talking to myself still, but now it's mainly good stuff / Cause our culture breeds cruelty / Radiating in our lives from every angle, so I must be louder with my love / You have always been enough / So now grow into the finest / Finest version of yourself / Embrace the miracles in you / And dive into the well of your own body / The well of love / You know everything you'll ever need is in there / The well of love / Everything you'll ever need is in there / I'm talking to myself still, but now it's mainly good stuff / Cause our culture breeds cruelty / Radiating in our lives from every angle, so I must be louder with my love / Cause our culture breeds cruelty / Radiating in our lives from every angle, so I must be louder with my love FLORESCENCE Now you're sliding the other way / You can not fool me / Your behaviour is tearing you apart / Why won't you see this / Come hold me / Hold me and I'll unfold you / Come hold me now and I will endure this hurt / Cause when our minds keep running off to dark corners / It can eat the kind heart out and plant evil seeds of doubt / Fool the eye and make your skin so hard and angry / So don't you ever stomp on that richness that is you / Let it bloom UNCOOL Uncool, Uncool, Uncool / Uncool, Uncool, Uncool / Uncool... / We're leading the way! / When it comes to your life / Focus on the very core of it / Be courageous / Feel yourself / Inhale the crucial / Ditch your phone / Small steps / You are the master of your own life / There's no one else in charge here / Be courageous / Feel yourself / Don't let the hubbub-hustle kill your brain / You are smart / Listen to your heart / Don't need to be cool REMINISCENCE I'm moving away from the thought that we ever could keep this thing neutral / She was right when she cut this thing off / But I will never forget how euphoric you made me feel / The unworldly casts between us / Skipping heartbeats by only holding hands / Those memories trigger me still at times / I get high of the thought of you / I wonder if you ever think of me too / Your beauty is undeniable / But this wasn't meant to be / Losing my head over you made me see / Oh what can you do / Life's waiting for you / In the light of where I stand today / I want nothing else but to thank you / My universe flipped several times / And now I see I live in a paradise / I value the love around me / It's all about choice and this time I made it right / Oh yes yes yes yes yes yes yes yes / Oh thank you for that / Oh what can you do / Life's waiting for you / Thank you for that
