Recorded in Uzbekistan between 2006 and 2011. The album is a selection of unissued recordings from MUNOJAT YULCHIEVA, the Uzbek singer one of the best musician representative of Central Asia region. The repertoire of this CD is mostly made of traditional classical music (maqom) except four modern compositions, three by Munajat master and mentor Shavkat Mirzaev and one by singer, musician and composer Jo'raxon Sultonov (1903-1965). The album is completed by a 16 pages booklet in English with a presentation text by Giovanni De Zorzi (University of Venice). MUNOJAT YULCHIEVA, a singer who reached a world fame out of her native Uzbekistan thanks to her many qualities: among all the constant inspired intensity of her interpretation and the rich, dark, timbre of her mezzo-soprano voice that you will appreciate in a while, undoubtedly falling under the spell of the diva.
