FAOL is the CD of 2021 by the Bolognese singer - songwriter Bonaveri. It comes out with Visage Music, as well as IL BARDO E IL RE DEI GATTI, disc of 2020 and continues the happy artistic collaboration of the artist with the label. FAOL in Gaelic means WOLF. The song that gives the disc its title tells of a wolf who is fatally wounded by a poacher, in the winter night of a cold and snowy forest. With the help of the forest itself, the wolf will be able to escape from man and go to die at the foot of the tallest and most ancient beech. If THE BARD AND THE CAT KING wanted to tell what to save from the times we are living in, FAOL is built around a principle that is fundamental for the singer - songwriter: protect the defenseless. Especially children and animals. The whole disc therefore revolves around the human delirium of standing up as judge and creator of the universe, without worrying in the least about the implications that this choice entails and without taking responsibility for the fact that entire future generations and the environment itself will cause indelible wounds.
